The sisters at the nursing home he serves are asking to be relieved of paying for his continuing education. They have done this for the past ten years or so and he has never utilized any of the funds. They now find it a financial hardship to continue and increase the payment to $300 per year. Father Last said that he would check with Knotek to see if Knotek agrees with this.

616. Knotek, John

He came to see me and explained that at age 72 he is very happy at St. Joseph's Home for the Aged in Kenosha where he is chaplain. He is an artist who paints reproductions of Renaissance paintings and also does some silver craft work. The sisters have built a little studio for him for this purpose. Everything is fine except for the attitude of the superior toward him. He feels that she is jealous of his popularity among the patients and the staff. She has forbidden him to take communion to the rooms of those who are able to ambulate to the chapel. He fears that she might want her brother, a religious order priest in the Philippines now retiring, to come to Kenosha and become their chaplain. In that event he has no where to go and right now he would like to stay there as long as possible. I told him I would put him on our list of applicants for the Cousins Center, and he liked that idea. Also, since he mentioned that the superior was very concerned about economizing, I suggested that he give some thought to the idea of taking his pension one of these years and relieving the sisters of the burden of his salary. He will give that some consideration. He seemed to feel better knowing that he got this off his chest. I told him that if a crisis ever developed, I would certainly help in any way I could.

On Saturday, September 6, 1986 I met with John for an extended discussion of his health and general attitude. He expressed a considerable unhappiness with the fact that perpetual adoration had been introduced at St. Joseph's without his approval. He said he had taken an extended vacation this summer in order to think about his own future and requested that he be allowed to remain on at St. Joseph's on a year-by-year basis which Bishop Brust had orally approved early this year. I concurred and said I would share the information with the personnel board.

On Monday, May 16, 1988 I had a very fine conversation with John [redacted] who called to make arrangements for his impending retirement. He reported that he has the approval of the pastor of St. Anthony's Parish to move into the convent building there. We agreed upon the date of June 30, 1988 with the understanding that an additional month may be necessary for John's removal of personal effects, artistic supplies, etc., to his new location. John said a formal letter would be sent to the Archbishop within a few days and is currently very much at peace with this decision. I informed the personnel board immediately.

He is happy that he is allowed to have Sunday Masses at the Parish. He is lonely but has a nurse friend who is retiring soon, and he hopes will be his housekeeper.

Dear John:

Your periodic review resume reached me on April 23 at which time I studied it in detail, and then unfortunately, set it aside but with the firm intention of calling you or dropping you a line to let you know that I received it and that I was impressed with it.

Time has passed so rapidly, and now I ask your forgiveness for not having contacted you sooner. As I say, your resume is indeed impressive because it shows dedication to ministry and happiness. It is unfortunate, however, that some of your assignments in the past have damaged your health to a degree. I know you are taking care of your health, and I hope your present situation provides a minimum of stress.

Keep up the good work you are doing, and even though we don't see very much of each other, we still are part of the team.

Thanks, again, for being a part of periodic review. With warm personal regards, I am

Dear John,

It was so good of you to write me that recent letter submitting your resignation from active ministry. I was especially pleased to see that you have found a good residency and will be able to move there in the first weeks of July. It is perfectly agreeable with me that the date of your retirement be officially June 30th.

Let me take this occasion to thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the good work that you have done in these many years of active ministry. I know it is impossible for anyone to calculate the number of lives that were touched by your ministry and I know you will leave all of that in the hands of the Good Lord.

Since one never really retires from priesthood, I know you will remain as active as you can be in helping the priests in the Kenosha area.

Thank you for your letter, John.

Dear Archbishop:

No precedent has been established to my knowledge which makes it easy for an elderly man who has loved his priesthood to submit his resignation from the active ministry. Due to the friendly and fatherly relationships of the Archbishops under whose authority I gladly accepted the assignments of my past fifty years of service, I tender my resignation to the active ministry.

Father Florian Mac and his parish council have offered me the former convent at St. Anthony's in Kenosha as my future home. Because the residence needs some extensive cleaning and refurbishing the Rosary Society has graciously volunteered its services in the hope that I will be able to move in the first week of July - before which I would like to take a two week vacation. On the advice of Bishop Richard Skiba and with your permission I would like to make the date of my retirement official as of June 30th.

With your blessing and with thanks for your understanding of the limitations of health and age, I remain in the service of the Lord and in your good will,

Dear Fr. John:

I write to express my appreciation for your hospitality and for the candor of our discussion on March 15, 1994. The issues raised by the communication I received are obviously serious and I am grateful for your willingness to assist in the Church's attempt to sort them out for the good of all concerned. If you recall any further information, please feel free to contact me. I shared the basic summary of our conversation with the person who wrote the letter as she continues her efforts to deal with some apparently painful episodes from the past.

I think that it would be best for all parties concerned if you would refrain from any unsupervised contact with minors pending the final conclusion of our investigation. I suspect that this will not be any type of limitation on your ministry given your current health and the limited Sacramental work which you are currently able to accept. Please know of my prayers and best wishes for the graces of Holy Week and Easter.

Dear [REDACTED]

It must have taken a great deal of courage for you to write your letter of June 6, 2002 in which you report that you were a victim of sexual abuse by Fr. John Knotek when you were a child in the early '50s.

I am pleased to learn that you were able to receive some helpful counseling about a year ago. Understandably the coverage of news media in recent years of these sexual scandals prompted you to pursue this issue further. I assure you that Fr. Knotek's name remains on record as one of the perpetrators of our Milwaukee Archdiocese. You are not the first victim survivor to report this kind of abuse from Fr. John Knotek.

I pray for your continued healing and peace, and join you in praising God that you have not abandoned the Catholic faith in spite of the horrible victimization which you have experienced. God continue to bless you and care for you as only God can.

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

As he was leaving for a month-long immersion program in Spanish, Archbishop Dolan asked that I look into the apparently mixed communication you have been provided.

I have thoroughly reviewed all of the files regarding Father Knotek. There is no explanation that I can find for Barbara Reinke's report to you in December 2002 that no other reports had been received about Father Knotek. In July 2002 someone did report an incident from the early 1950's. Perhaps the volume of contacts during that particular time led to the misinformation. Since Dr. Reinke is no longer in the employ of the Archdiocese I can only surmise that this was the case.

It was on the basis of these two reports that the decision was made to include Father Knotek on the list. Since our dual objective was to protect children and to encourage others to come forward, we chose to err on the side of inclusion rather than exclusion.

I am sorry this mistaken report has caused you even more upset. Again, if you would find it helpful to meet with someone and try to bring resolution, you may contact our Sexual Abuse Prevention and Response line (414-769-3436) which is staffed by three people who will call back on any message left at that line. If you would prefer contact with an independent mediation system, please feel free to contact 866-302-9215.

Archbishop Dolan has also expressed his willingness to meet with those who make such a request. He will return to Milwaukee in mid-August. Please let me know if you would find such a meeting helpful. I will pray that you find the road to whatever healing is needed in your life.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan,

I have been corresponding with the Catholic Church for the past 10 years regarding Father John Knotek. He was a priest at St. James Catholic Church/School in Menomonee Falls back in the 70's. I have written twice, concerning any abuse allegations against him. Back in 1994, Richard Skiba called me and told me that they keep Fr. John away from children.

I have some horrible memories of him painting a portrait of me when I was eight years old. Although I cannot recall specific events, I do remember "bits and pieces" of him drawing my portrait and of the events that happened after. I have attached my most recent letter dated December 9, 2002.

Barbara Reinke responded back to me on December 16, 2002, which was greatly appreciated. I have attached a copy of that letter also. Her response was that you have not received any other complaints about Fr. John Knotek. Barbara welcomed me to call her to discuss the matter further, but I have a hard time discussing this issue, so I left the issue unresolved in my mind, hoping to move on.

This past week I received a letter from you regarding the release of the names of priests who are restricted from all priestly ministries. I felt confident that Fr. John's name would NOT appear because of your letter saying no other complaints were filed, and because of my lack of specifics. To my great surprise and total utter shock, Fr. John's name appeared on the list that was published Sunday, July 10, 2004 in the Journal/Sentinel.

So, just within the past two years, enough complaints were filed against this man to put his name on the list? Or were you just lying to me? [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] My question is: How many complaints are filed against him. I cannot be the only one. PLEASE, please, give me an answer.

I do appreciate the correspondence you continue to send me. Please feel free to write, call or e-mail me with your response. I cannot stress how important this is to me.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]

Milwaukee, WI 53207-0912

Dear Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan,

I am writing you today in order for me to find some resolution to the past. I am currently a member of [REDACTED] have lived in this area most of my life and attended St. James School [REDACTED]

Catholic school was not a pleasant experience for me. I saw abuse in the second grade when my teacher hit a classmate so hard in the face that his nose bled all over the floor. Another child tried to jump out our second story classroom window, with some of us kids trying to talk him back into the classroom. I also remember hearing children scream as our principal hit them, with I assume was a ruler. [REDACTED] Children would go into the confessionals before mass and the priest would yell at some of them. What humiliation to walk out of the confessional with the entire school looking at you.

Although these experiences are unpleasant, I have a much deeper and life changing experience I need to tell you. In third grade, the Pastor, John Knotek, drew a portrait of me and some of the other girls in my class, each separately. My parents did not commission the pastor, nor did they know about the portrait until I brought it home (I have enclosed a copy of the picture). While I was getting this portrait done, I remember some horrible things. Paint brushes, closing the blinds, and not wanting to go back. I could not understand why I could not go outside for recess and why I had to go to this room with the pastor. [REDACTED] so I would not have to go and so that my mother would have to pick me up. My parents took me to the doctor and he could not find any physical reason why [REDACTED] I was told not [REDACTED] or I would be put away. Nice for a child to hear! I remember Father John finally "dotting my eye" on the portrait with white paint and I knew it was over.

I am writing you to get the truth. I had written to the church about this matter in 1994. I wrote to Pastor Doda, who in turn sent my letter to Bishop Skiba. Bishop Skiba told me that they keep Father John "away from children" and that he was old and did not remember me. I did not get any further answers to my questions. I know this man is very old or dead, but I would like the truth. Why did St. James school close so abruptly? Why did Father John leave so quickly in 1970? Was I the only child? Is there a file on him and what is in that file concerning abuse? AM I THE ONLY CHILD!

ADOM014695

I saw you on the television when you came to Milwaukee. I saw something in your face that gave me a sense of peace and that you are a fair and honest person. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] but I have always wanted the truth. I feel like a puzzle with pieces missing or out of place. Help me to complete this puzzle and move on.

Thank you for your time,

Dear [REDACTED]

Archbishop Dolan asked me to respond to your recent letter, as I manage the program to assist persons with situations of sexual abuse. You would also be welcome to call me (414-769-3436) to discuss this further.

I am truly sorry you had so many bad experiences while attending grade school. [REDACTED] what do you recollect happening in that room where Fr. Knotek was painting your portrait? Why did he want to paint you? Did he paint other children too to your knowledge? If you would be willing, I would like for you and I to talk over your memories.

The file of correspondence pertaining to your contacts with Pastor Doda and Bishop Skiba in 1994 is in my office. To date we have not received any other complaints about Fr. John Knotek. Fr. Knotek is still alive, but has been retired since 1988. I have done some research to try to answer your other questions. On March 31, 1970, the parish council recommended closing the school because 80% of the church's income was being spent on the education of relatively few children, as 85% of the children affiliated with the parish attended public schools. It seems that the closing of the school led to upheaval with faculty and various factions in the church, such that Fr. Knotek requested to resign his position on February 7, 1972 and his resignation was accepted.

Please feel free to contact me so that we can discuss what would help you move toward peace on this matter. I'm sorry it has been so troubling for you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Reinke, Ph.D.

✓139. John Knotek

On March 15, 1994 I visited John with the allegation received from [REDACTED] John was very forthright and credible in explaining the circumstances surrounding his abrupt departure from St. James Parish in Menomonee Falls in March of 1972 as due to difficulties with the Associate, Fr. Jim Ernster, together with the fact that he was himself forced to fire the janitor and needed the assistance of the Archdiocesan lawyer in order to handle that particular matter. These events coupled with his own bad health led him to seek another assignment and Archbishop Cousins suggested St. Joseph's Nursing Home in Kenosha out of respect for John's poor health. He also explained that some of his library of art works had been left behind for packing by someone else. He could only surmise that community conversation shifted the nature of those books from reproductions of classical art works towards something less positive. He asserted that he had been guilty of absolutely no improper contact with any children. I subsequently called Fr. Gene Doda the following day to report the substance of my conversation so that he might be of help to his parishioner. I reported the matter to Dr. Piasecki and Fr. Venna. I met with Dr. Piasecki on March 17, 1994 to share the letter from [REDACTED] and promised to contact [REDACTED] with the results of my investigation. I asked Dr. Piasecki to follow up with a phone call later to see if she could be of any help, and to contact Fr. Les Darnieder to see if there was any verification from records of about half the third grade leaving St. James school in 1972. My research indicated that Fr. Knotek was assigned at St. James Parish in Menomonee Falls from November 26, 1968 through March 7, 1972.

On March 17, 1994 a conversation with Fr. Ed Eschweiler disclosed that he had also heard some gossip from within the Menomonee Falls community regarding Fr. Knotek's possession of inappropriate materials and interest in children.

Subsequent to my visit I wrote a letter asking that he not have unsupervised with children until the matter could be investigated more thoroughly.

On March 18, 1994 I contacted [REDACTED] to report on the results of my investigation of files and my meeting with Fr. Knotek. I indicated that there was no evidence of allegations of any sort in the files of the Archdiocese and that Fr. John had explained the major issues to which [REDACTED] letter alluded, namely the abrupt departure and reference to inappropriate printed materials. I promised to continue my investigation and also stated that Dr. Elizabeth Piasecki would be contacting her in order to see if further assistance could be provided during this time. [REDACTED] admitted being exceptionally nervous during our telephone conversation and stated that during the past year of therapy she has been exploring why she is so uncomfortable in the presence of a Roman collar, even that of the Lutheran pastor of the congregation [REDACTED] She was grateful for my phone call and my expression of concern.

Your Excellency:

May I take this occasion to express my gratitude to You and the personnel of the St. Michael's Priest Fund for making it possible for me to regain my health.

Bishop Daniel Gercke has been more than solicitous about my health and well-being; and the pastor of St. Peter & Paul - Rev. Francis Groen, has allowed me to make his parish my unofficial headquarters.

I've looked forward towards my return to Milwaukee for some months now, but the doctors' latest report on my bronchial condition seems to indicate the necessity of my remaining in a dry climate during the winter months.

This last report has been forwarded to Messrs. George
Meyer.

May God reward your gracious

My dear Father Knotek:

I was pleased to receive your letter and to learn that you were gradually regaining your health. Personally, I do not think it would be advisable for you to return to Milwaukee during the winter months, in view of the fact that there is so much moisture and dampness from the lake. You would probably counteract all the progress that you have made, and in that case "the second condition would be worse than the first".

Your Excellency;

As you know, I have been the medical adviser to Reverend John T. Knotek while he has been residing in Tucson. I feel he has progressed to a point where it is reasonable for him to return to his diocese and to undertake whatever duties he is assigned. This is probably the most optimum season of the year for him to make the change. It is my opinion that this return should be on a trial basis. It may be that the severe winter weather of the Great Lakes region may prove to be unsuitable for him. In that event, it would seem to me that consideration be given to the advisability of transferring him to a southwestern or Southern California diocese.

Most respectfully yours,

Dear Bishop Gercke:

The Reverend John T. Knotek who returned from Arizona last July, thinking that he was sufficiently cured to take up his work in the Archdiocese, finds that he must return to Arizona. The doctors tell him that he should return to a dry climate at the earliest possible day.

Father Knotek feels that he could do some pastoral work. If there is any place where he might help out in your diocese I am sure he would be grateful. However, you understand that I am not asking you to provide him with some work unless it would be advantageous to you or that his services of whatsoever nature he is able to render might be helpful.

Thanking you for your kindness on so many occasions to the priests from Milwaukee who have been obliged to spend some time in Arizona, and also thanking you for your kindness to me on a number of occasions when you were Rector of the Cathedral in Philadelphia, and with best wishes and kindest personal regards, I remain,

Dear Archbishop:-

This is in reply to your letter of August 20 regarding the Rev. Father Knotek. I am sorry to learn that he has to return here. He is one of the finest priests whom I have met. Probably he would say that about Tucsonensis speaking of bishops. I am really very fond of him. Sometimes for pontifical masses we have to rely on outsiders to give us a hand. Father was always ready to help out.

I shall be looking around. It is not easy in a Diocese like this to find a place, for there are many seekers and our chaplaincies are limited and pastors want strong able-bodied curates. Father is well known here and our priests are fond of him.

Recently I was able to find a place for a padre from Chicago and for several others. I don't know of any opening just now, but I shall look about. A priest would be better in a rectory if he is able to do any parish work.

With sentiments of esteem in the union of prayer, I am

Devotedly yours in Christ

Your Excellency

I write this letter because I have become too tense and nervous to be entirely coherent in speaking with you before first acquainting you with certain matters that have been much on my mind for a long time.

Over a year and a half ago my health began to break down—quite evidently as a result of imprudent over-work and some anxiety in my work with the Parish and the Mission. I won't go into details regarding this except to state that five and a half years ago I accepted the pastorate here with much happiness, energy and eagerness to create good will between the parishioners and myself. However, it seems that I overdid in working with the parishioners in restoring the interior of the Church, the rectory and especially the Mission Church, the interior of which is now entirely renovated. It was then that I noticed that my voice began to fail me and rest at night no longer dispelled my tiredness. We have actually installed public address system in both small churches in order that my sermons could be heard. Since then my eyesight became perceptibly weaker also.

A year ago my doctor insisted that I get away for a rest. I went to Arizona for my month's vacation and felt much better after three weeks' stay. (His Excellency, the late Archbishop Kiley sent me there on extended sick-leave some twelve years ago because of a chronic-bronchial condition) However, soon after I had returned last summer the feeling of exhaustion soon returned, and I asked permission to go to Sacred Heart Sanitarium for a while, but within two weeks I became increasingly more tense and somewhat depressed—I just couldn't get back to the parish fast enough. (I had spent eight weeks at the Sanitarium) Under doctor's care since, I have reduced my work to saying Mass, taking care of the few calls associated with a country parish, and my Sunday Masses and sermons. — I was able, finally, to get sisters to teach the over one hundred children on Saturdays.

Because I have been taking tranquillizing capsules and other drugs, including a nightly dose of sleeping tablets for over a year now without any real or lasting gain in strength and energy or ability to really relax, I asked my doctor to recommend a Catholic psychiatrist who might help me regarding my tenseness which becomes severe and painful if I speak with anyone for any length of time. He concurred with my doctor that I must leave for a complete rest temporarily and assured me that within six months I should be well enough to return to parish work.

Your Excellency, would you grant me an interview at your convenience in the near future to discuss further the matter of my health and the recommendation of my doctor for temporary sick leave. My health and strength were restored to me once before during my stay in Southern Arizona. Private lodging would not be at problem and possibly a return to a hobby, my painting - would relax me again sufficiently to go through the day without tranquillizers and to sleep again without drugs. I want so much to return to parish work - it's my very life - and I promise I won't go 'overboard' again on parish projects.

Most Sincerely in Christ

Father John Kutek

Dear John,

As I continue to adjust to my role as Archbishop, I am undertaking a review of files of priests. I note that there have been problems in your past of which you are well aware. I have asked Father Joe Hornacek to contact you for a personal meeting to discuss this situation with you on my behalf and to deliver this letter to you for me. If you want to meet with me personally at some point after your conversation with Joe, I am certainly open to that possibility.

In the meantime, I see that a precept restricting your exercise of ministry is in place. I would like to confirm those restrictions: You are to have no unsupervised contact with minors and no public exercise of ministry; Private celebration with only another priest or priests in attendance is permitted, but no other sacramental ministry. Given the current state of matters, I would also ask that you not wear your collar in public settings, nor present yourself in public as a priest. This is for your protection as well.

I regret that my first formal correspondence with you needs to be on such a delicate and painful matter. I am sure you understand that the scope of my responsibilities in caring for the flock entrusted to me and for you requires that I do so.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan

Dear Father Knotek:

For the sake of our records and to permit your appointment as Chaplain to St. Joseph Home for the Aged in Kenosha, please look upon this letter as an acceptance of your resignation as Pastor of St. James Parish, Menomonee Falls, effective as of March 7, 1972.

Your assignment to St. Joseph Home for the Aged is one that should be quite acceptable and reflects a respect for your own choice of priestly service. Though your predecessor rubbed some people the wrong way, there has never been a complaint about his zeal. He was available for visits from the various residents, he made it a point to bring Communion to those who were unable to attend a morning Mass, provided opportunities for the common recitation of the Rosary, Lenten Devotions, etc., and, generally speaking, provided services which were deeply appreciated. Your own temperament will in all likelihood carry on in the same tradition.

With warm personal regards, I am
